

REPORTING FORGERY/COUNTERFEITING/IDENTITY THEFT

To begin an investigation into a report of forgery, counterfeiting or identity theft, we must have:

- (1) your name,
- (2) your address,
- (3) the bank routing and account number relating to the reported records,
- (4) a copy of your driver's license or other state-issued identification,
- (5) if the matter involves the opening of a new bank account, your social security number,
- (6) specific details of the records you are disputing (check or transaction number, date, amount, and payee), and
- (7) the reason for the dispute (suspected forgery, suspected identity theft, etc.).

To ensure we have all relevant information that best substantiates your dispute, we recommend you also submit one or more of the following:

- (a) TeleCheck's Forgery/Identity Theft Declaration form, completed
- (b) copy of a filed police report
- (c) completed FTC Identity Theft Report Affidavit available at www.ftc.gov, or
- (d) completed bank affidavit or declaration

Even if you don't supply (a)-(d), you can still help our investigation by supplying as much relevant information as you have about your dispute. For instance, provide a detailed statement about the incident, provide copies of receipts, any related collection letters you received, etc. We also ask that you provide a phone number where you may be reached during business hours in case we have questions.

TeleCheck may take up to 30 days to conduct a reinvestigation from the date the dispute is received or 45 days if we receive additional information from you about the dispute during that 30 day period.
